

Sermon on the Mount Course

The Sermon on the Mount (Matthew chapters 5 to 7) is The Great Charter of Christianity. Jesus hoped that all of it would be put into practice by his followers and that it would become their yardstick, i.e. the way the health of one's Christian life is measured. Therefore, at least once in a lifetime, the study of this great teaching of Jesus cannot be avoided. This Course intends to give a refreshing, practical and in-depth view on the Sermon, reading the Message of the Lord in the unity of the entire Gospel of St Matthew.

Structure of the 3 days

The Course will follow the structure of the Sermon:

1st Saturday: Introduction: Understanding the meaning of the Sermon according to Saint Matthew, First part of Chapter 5, Second part of Chapter five: the Son.

2nd Saturday: Chapter 6: the Father. Praying.

3rd Saturday: Chapter 7: the Holy Spirit. Conclusion

Who might find the course useful?

Anyone would find explanations of the Greater Charter of Christianity interesting: people from all venues of life who want to understand how Christianity was understood by the first generations of Christians, people who want to deepen their Baptism, people who already have a spiritual life but want to give it Solid Foundations.
